Pacific States University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, national or ethnic origin, marital status, physical disability, or any other legally protected status in the administration of its educational programs, admission policies, or any other University-administered programs or activities. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX of the Educational Amendment of 1972 and other non-discriminatory statutes should be directed to the Executive Vice President, the University officer assigned the responsibility for reviewing such matters.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

The Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) was established by the California Legislature to protect any California resident who attends a private postsecondary institution from losing money if the student has prepaid tuition and suffered a financial loss as a result of the school's closing, failure to live up to its enrollment agreement, or refusal to pay a court judgment.

To be eligible for STRF reimbursement, the student must be a "California resident" and reside in California at the time the enrollment agreement is signed or when the student receives lessons at a California mailing address from an approved institution offering correspondence instruction. Students who are temporarily residing in California for the sole purpose of pursuing an education, specifically those who hold student visas, are not considered California residents.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the student must file an STRF application within one year of receiving notice from the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education (BPPVE) that the school is closed. If the student does not receive notice from the Bureau, the student has four years from the date of closure to file an STRF application. If a judgment is obtained, the student must file an STRF application within two years of the final judgment.

It is important that students keep copies of the enrollment form, financial aid papers, receipts, and any other information that documents the monies paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education (BPPVE), 400 "R" Street, Suite 5000, Sacramento, CA 95814-6200, (916) 445-3428.
